

FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen IN's Telephone Privacy law protections; Indiana's law has improved my time at home and significantly reduced the number of annoying phone calls I receive.